

Oliver Parr

Senior Advisor, London

Oliver is a highly experienced banker, having spent over 25 years at JP Morgan and Samuel Montagu/HSBC. He is currently an active placement agent for private equity and venture capital, as well as an advisor to Frey Capital AG in Zurich. He is also an advisor to Structured Finance Management Ltd, a London based provider of management services to the structured finance sector of the capital markets industry.

As a banker, Oliver was responsible for the UK activities of HSBC Investment Bank's Specialised Financing division, prior to which he established its mezzanine finance activity. He worked for a number of years in both Australia and Singapore, as well as in London and New York. More recently he has been a consultant to Deloitte and, for four years until 2006, ran a financial advisory partnership, STAC Partners LLP.

At European Risk Capital, Oliver is involved in raising structured private equity and venture capital funds, arranging debenture issues, as well as overall aspects of commercial borrowing; furthermore, he acts as an expert witness in cases involving loan financing generally and management buyouts in particular.

Oliver is also the Chairman of Premier Art Spaces Ltd, the largest provider of rental space to the UK art market.
